Biofutures International plc
1 March 2007

Membership of RSPO

Biofutures International plc (the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has been accepted as an affiliate member of RSPO, the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil. This international organisation promotes the growth and use of sustainable palm oil.

As a responsible biofuels company involved in palm oil, Biofutures' membership of RSPO is key. The Company believes it is vital that production and use of palm oil be done in a sustainable manner based on economic, social and environmental viability and it looks forward to working with RSPO to meet these aims.
